

Chapter Membership Program & Application

WV APCO Chapter - Its purposes are:

To promote cooperation between discrete levels of government within West Virginia, and their various agencies, as may particularly enhance radio communications; to include law enforcement, fire, highway, emergency medical, rescue, civil defense, forestry, conservation, and other government users, and such private vendors and service agencies contributing to the public communications environment;

To foster the development and progress of the arts of public-safety communications through research, planning, training, and education; aiding and assisting the development of methods and systems for the rapid and accurate information exchange relating to criminal activity and civil crisis, or other such similar public safety needs;

To provide assistance to public-safety organizations within West Virginia in the matter of their communications requirements, and in the framing of legislation, regulatory policies and procedures pertaining to public-safety communications;

To lend support to, create interest in, and foster expansion of the Associated Public-Safety Communications Officials International, Inc., providing for membership therein in accordance with the current statements of its Constitution and By-Laws, and such future criteria as may be established by the national parent organization;

To pursue the highest professional performance in serving the public need for safety of human life, protection of property, and timely response of government to citizens.

To make formal petitions, by way of resolutions in the proper format, and following established requirements, at such time as it is felt that changes are needed in the Constitution and/or Bylaws of the Association.

WV APCO CHAPTER & COMMITTEES

The WV APCO Chapter is composed of current registered members of WV APCO. These members represent the diverse interests and success of the 911 industry in WV; engage in committees, chapter meetings, conferences, community outreach, training, etc.

WV APCO Board Members must maintain an APCO Full-Membership status during their entire commitment to the chapter; as well as standing for nomination to fulfil a position within the Chapter.

SELECTION PROCESS

Applications will be reviewed and processed by the WV APCO Executive Committee (Board) and recommendations will be provided for final review, discussion and selection; pursuant to WV APCO Chapter Bylaws; Elections are pursuant to this process.

MEETINGS

The WV APCO Board and Committees (often referred to as staff) conduct their business through a series of monthly and/or quarterly conference calls and actual sit-down meetings. The WV APCO Staff must conduct a minimum of two (2) in-person meetings per calendar year; one (1) meeting typically held at the WV APCO Conferences (Spring and Fall); and one (1) meeting during the National APCO Annual Conference in August.

APPOINTMENT OF POSITIONS

To successfully manage the various WV APCO Committees the WV APCO Board may appoint from active members: a secretary, chairperson, and other titles to oversee specific roles & responsibilities as deemed necessary to successfully manage Committees. The WV APCO Board staff shall oversee all committees.

COMMITTEE & CHAPTER ENGAGEMENT

Committees within the Chapter work on a variety of target issues such as continual improvement of the conference and exhibit opportunities in WV APCO; engagement and support of Chapter Commercial Advisory Members (CCAMs); and the providing of membership perspectives to other APCO and Public Safety Telecommunicator initiatives.

Members may be elected, volunteer, or be appointed to establish, manage, chair, cochair, or other means necessary participate with committees to identify topics, solutions, and management for successful operations of the vision, goals and objectives of WV APCO.

FUNDING

WV APCO Members must bear responsibility for payment of all costs incurred during their involvement as a volunteer in their official capacity with WV APCO.

Members seeking reimbursement or sponsorship must submit an official request with a completed budget sheet within ninety (90) days prior to the event for approval from the WV APCO Board. The consideration for request to be reimbursed or receive allocated sponsorship funding will only be fulfilled upon satisfactory completion of the course, proposed event, etc. as outlined in the request of the sponsorship application and supplied budget form.

If a Member is unable to fulfill the obligation of bearing responsibility for payment of all costs incurred during the involvement, it must be notated within the application and decided upon by the WV APCO Board for approval or denial of exceptions. Members receiving WV APCO sponsorship or reimbursement funding must provide all receipts reflecting utilization of the allocated funding, and any affiliated competition certificate(s), etc. to WV APCO within 30 days of completion or post-event.

Applicants for sponsorship must only apply for a single, one (1) event opportunity – no multi-year sponsorships will be awarded. The applicant and their agency must ensure the funding is utilized appropriately and the event seeking sponsorship funding for must be completed in full to comply with the conditions of the application. WV APCO Board reserves the right to issue disbursement of sponsorship and reimbursement funding and ensure proper management of the appropriate amount of funding issued as little as zero (0) and as much as deemed necessary by the WV APCO Board. This process is based upon the applications received and the vetting and scoring process pursuant to a case by case scenario; so long as any WV APCO Member does not exceed disbursement of $1,500 on any given sponsorship or reimbursement in any given calendar year.
